

Telugu University invites the suggestions from the Students, Experts in the particular fields and Stakeholders before framing the syllabus of a particular programme. Taking into consideration the suggestions and recommendations, the syllabus will be framed, in the preliminary stage and approved by the Board of Studies of a department. Later the same will be approved by the highest academic body of the University i.e. Academic Senate consists of members of high academic stature. Following the achievement of consensus, the information is extensively disseminated and popularized via various methods described below.

- Website
- Department Notice Boards
- Meetings with employers
- Laboratories
- Library
- Induction Programs
- Faculty meetings
- Parent meet
- Alumni meetings